

Allied Forces Under the Battledress

The triumphant final volume in a series that looks at the battledress of World War II. This is the third volume of the vast trilogy devoted to the Allied troops under the Anglo-Canadian command of the 21st Army Group. The aim of this book is to discover the distinguishing features of those volunteers who donned British battledress: Belgians, Luxemburgers, Frenchmen, Dutchmen, Poles, Norwegians, Czechs and Danes and who were engaged from the Normandy beaches to well into the heart of the Reich. It is intended for all sorts of amateurs of history: collectors, model-makers, historians and reconstitution groups.
