

Climbing Lincolns Steps: The African American Journey

Change. It happens slowly. One small step at a time. Important moments in African American history have occurred at the Lincoln Memorial: Marian Andersons concert in 1939; Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.s famous speech in 1963; and a visit in 2009 from the first black president and his family. This book interweaves these key events with the story of black Americans struggle for equality.
