

Making a Way Out of No Way: A Womanist Theology (Innovations: African American Religious Thought)

In her new book, Monica A. Coleman articulates the African American expression of making a way out of no way for today's context of globalization, religious pluralism, and sexual diversity. Drawing on womanist religious scholarship and process thought, Coleman describes the symbiotic relationship among God, the ancestors, and humanity that helps to change the world into the just society it ought to be. Making a Way Out of No Way shows us a way of living for justice with God and proposes a communal theology that presents a dynamic way forward for black churches, African traditional religions and grassroots organizations.
