

Salve Regina I: A Minor II : C Minor (Pergolesi, Giovanni Battista//Complete Works: Opere Complete)

Of the nine or more settings of the Salve regina attributed to Giovanni Battista Pergolesi by various eighteenth-century sources only the two presented here can be considered authentic—one in A minor for soprano strings and continuo almost certainly from the earliest stages of his career; the other in C minor for the same forces one of his most widely disseminated works and possibly his final work one that is both stylistically and aesthetically on a par with his renowned Stabat mater. The ninety-two known sources for the work transmit it in no fewer than six distinctly different versions and this publication presents the most striking of them in a series of appendices.
