

El Bhagavad Gita: Dialogos entre Krishna y Arjuna / Dialogues Between Krishna and Arjuna (Spanish Edition)

Desde que Wilkins tradujo en 1785 el Bhagavad Gita o Canto del Senyor, que es uno de los Mahabbharata, quedaron sorprendidos los literatos europeos por aquella revelacion del nuevo mundo que se abria a los ojos de la critica, por aquel inopinado descubrimiento de un nuevo y vatisimo campo en el que tenian sus originarias raices las ciencias, artes, letras, religiones y filosofias, las civilizaciones, en suma, de los paises de Occidente. Sin duda alguna que el Bhagavad Gita ha sido, es y sera, en la India, la obra mas leida, comentada y aplaudida de cuantas constituyen su riquisima literatura sagrada. De su valor filosofico daremos palido vislumbre al decir que lo aceptan ortodoxamente y en el beben, como en cristalina fuente de verdad, todas las escuelas y sectas religiosas que al amparo de la nobilissima virtud de tolerancia florecen en Oriente cual ramas de un comun tronco que con igual actividad por todas ellas distribuye su savia. Este tomo contiene tambien el UTTARA GITA.
