

The Woodmill Farm Blog Book

A humorous look at life on a Cornish smallholding: Michelle, her husband Peter and their two children Laura and Steven, embarked on a new life. Not wanting to do things by halves, they set out to run a holiday-cottage business, a smallholding, and an award-winning architectural practice, all at the same time. Despite the bedlam, Michelle somehow found the time to record much of it in a Blog, from which sprang this book. Its a light-hearted snapshot of the mayhem that ensued; a stirring tale of pigs, vets, plumbing, golf and guests, with the odd welly-boot thrown in for good measure, and lots of photographs.
