Excerpt from Historical Record of Nameaug Engine Co: Together With an Original Poem, Read at the Re-Union, February 22nd, 1871, Also, a List of Its Members From Its Organization to the Present Time Your committee on the history of this Company approached their duties deeply impressed with the belief of their inability to do justice to the subject. The history of the Nameaug Company, extending over twenty years, has taken volumes to record. It will be the duty of your committee to cull front these records prominent incidents calculated to bring back remembrances of the good old times. The first written records of this Company to be found are dated August 6th. 1849; but it is supposed by many, and some of the old inhabitants assert that the organization existed many years previous to this date. As reliable historians we will discard tradition and confine ourselves to the written records. At the above date the organization existed as Reliance No. 5. We will give in full the record of the annual election at that date. Company met at 8 oclock, P. M.; after collection of fines and dues, the Company proceeded (it being the annual meeting) to choice of officers, which resulted as follows, viz: F. I. Allen, Foreman, H. E. West, 1st Assistant, A. W. Gallauer. 2nd Assistant, C. G. Si stare, Secretary. The following new members were then proposed and elected; William H. Barns, Jonathan Starr, Jr., William Read, Patrick Kelley. Miscellaneous business being in order, it was moved and seconded that the leading committee consist hereafter of ten, and that they hold their office one year; that they be taken from the bead of the list of members, following every year in succession; passed. B. S. Beckwich, D. A. Pollock, Thomas Edgar, George E. Starr, John A. Comstock, wese chosen suction hose committee. No further business, Company adjourned. About the Publisher Forgotten
