Never Work Again shows you how you can build a successful and profitable business without the long hours and high stress that most entrepreneurs suffer from. Trust me I've been there and it's not fun. In the months after I started my first business I didn't know any better. My business was making me ill, but I was too wrapped up in what I was doing to spot the signs let alone to do anything about it. That is until the day I found myself on a London tube train begging a stranger to call me an ambulance and thinking I was going to die. That was my wake-up call. Luckily I got a second chance. That day I realised that life is short and precious and I made a decision that if I pulled through I was going to do things differently. I decided to restructure my business efforts so that I could live life to the full. What I decided to create for myself was: A business that I could be proud of The financial freedom to live the life of my dreams The time freedom to do the things I love and to be with the people who matter most to me And now I want to help you do the same.
