

Plutocracy & Democracy: How Money Corrupts Our Politics and Culture

How do we square the inequality that is a natural byproduct of our market-based economy with the equality principle we hold dear? Is inequality worse than ever before? Will our politics self-correct or are we spiraling out of control? These questions and more are answered by today's foremost public intellectuals: Walter Russell Mead, Francis Fukuyama, Robert Reich, Tyler Cowen, Sebastian Mallaby, and others in this thought-provoking collection of essays from The American Interest magazine.
