

The Polite Pupil: For the Use of Catholic Parochial and High Schools (Classic Reprint)

Excerpt from The Polite Pupil: For the Use of Catholic Parochial and High Schools Though we have presented the subject of Good Manners In the somewhat prosaic form of a tedious study, still we make no attempt at an apology. Some contend that good man ners are best imparted at home, and that, under a virtuous and loving mothers eye, the habits of true politeness are formed. Every experienced educator will say: Would that, under existing circumstances, this were always the case.
