

Yes Virginia, There is a Heaven

Are you driven to find answers to questions that worry and concern you about your loved one who has passed? Do you have a desire to have information in-hand to share that will comfort bereaving families and friends? Yes Virginia, There is a Heaven, 1979 (2014) is the PERFECT gift for YOU whether it is the holiday season, birthday or death date. Yes, Virginia is the real life story of author, Katerina St. Claire and her near death experience (NDE) journey to heaven and back on December 13, 1979. The story has helped answer questions for hundreds of people these past 35-years. Church groups, funeral home directors and more have received Katerinas story and have had her share her story with their congregation, at funeral services and with families. Over the past 35-years, Katerina has also shared her journey with many individuals who were grieving the loss of their loved one. The magical date: 12.13.14 for the 35th Anniversary Edition LAUNCH DAY of this work on Kindle resulted in a #1 under Sociology / Death. The results of hearing her story were: A peaceful resolve of their loss making it easier to move forward with their lives. The ability to release the guilt of not being there for their loved one and so much more. Testimonies: I found closure after hearing Katerinas moving story of life and death. C. Wallace As a minister, I studied the bible thoroughly. However, Katerinas story explained many personal questions I had. She especially answered questions I had been asked about for years but did not have an answer for. H. Goble Why not pre-order the book today in memory of Christmas or any holiday, anniversary or birthday? This makes a perfect gift for friends and families who have lost a loved one and are facing the holidays, birthdays, etc. alone. I have given print outs of my journey for years. Now, with Yes Virginia, There is a Heaven is in print form, funeral homes can contact me for a special memorial or memory book version, as well as churches, bereavement groups, individuals and more.
